The Woman's Home Companion is now the greatest of the magazines intended for the home --- for father, for mother, for the children. It has seventy-five to one hundred beautiful illustrations in each issue, three to eight complete stories by famous writers, magnificent reproductions of great paintings, a special department for children, departments for different matters of the home-life, and many pages especially for women. It is a beautiful magazine---attractive, interesting, entertaining, helpful. Three hundred and fifty thousand homes receive it every month.

The Cosmopolitan is without a peer among the magazines of general subject matter. It has more enterprise than any other; it secures and prints more new and original articles. It has a splendid fiction department. It is finely illustrated. Like the Woman's Home Companion, it finds a place in nearly four hundred thousand homes.
